

LARSON · O'BRIEN_{LLP}

R.C. Harlan

R.C. Harlan is a litigator with extensive experience in complex commercial litigation, arbitration, and mediation. He has also been involved in internal investigations as well as white-collar criminal defense.

Mr. Harlan has represented clients in several industries, including manufacturing, entertainment, pharmaceuticals, medical devices, and health care. He has handled securities class actions, antitrust and unfair competition matters, wage and hour class actions, patent and trademark litigation, contract disputes, government investigations, trade secret misappropriation, wrongful death actions, and shareholder disputes.

Mr. Harlan has also worked on numerous appellate matters before both state and federal courts of appeal. In 2014, Mr. Harlan was recognized as a Rising Star in Southern California by Super Lawyers. Mr. Harlan is a former clerk for the Honorable Boyce F. Martin, Jr. on the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, and a cum laude graduate of Boston University School of Law. He received his undergraduate degree from Claremont McKenna College.

Email

rcharlan@larsonobrienlaw.com

Phone

213.436.4868