

LARSON · O'BRIEN_{LLP}

Patrick K. O'Brien

Patrick K. O'Brien focuses on general civil litigation with an emphasis on complex construction, automobile, business, trust, insurance and product liability matters.

He received his undergraduate degree from Loyola Marymount University and his law degree from Gonzaga Law School where he was Associate Editor of the Gonzaga Law Review.

Mr. O'Brien has successfully tried a number of cases, including several major business fraud cases, automobile and truck cases, construction matters and elder abuse cases. He is also a principal in his own firm in Northern California, which represents clients statewide in matters involving commercial automobile issues, construction defect, employment, public entity disputes, business fraud, breach of contract, aviation and trust and estate issues. He is Of Counsel to Larson O'Brien LLP.

Email

pobrien@larsonobrienlaw.com

Phone

213.436.4888